

THANK YOU!: We had a great turnout for our First Annual Trunk or Treat! We had many trunks, and served over 200 kids! The public voted for the best trunk, and our Youth Group won! Start thinking of ideas for next year!

Saints Alive was a great event! We had many Saints during Mass, and then at the party afterwards. A big thank you to all who made this event a success; especially The Jaime's, Minnie's Uptown, Knights of Columbus, and Ladies of Sodality! We had great fellowship, great food, great games, and got to learn about Saints! What a blessed way to celebrate our Saints!

PARISH COUNCIL MEETING: Our next meeting will be this coming Monday, November 12, 2018 @ 5:30p.m. in the Parish Hall.

ALTAR FLOWERS: Call the office to reserve a date for your floral offering to God in memory or honor of a love one (334) 298-9025.

SODALITY BAKE SALE: Just on Time for Thanksgiving Dinner! The Ladies of the Sodality are having their Annual Bake Sale! November 17th—18th, 2018 after all Masses at St. Patrick's Fellowship Hall. Please support this cause, this is their main fundraiser.

Saint Patrick Lazarus: HELP THE NEEDY THIS HOLIDAY SEASON: Sponsor a family for $30 The following will be given to a needy family: Ham or Turkey, white and sweet potatoes, corn, green beans, cranberry sauce, stuffing mix, baked goods and bread.

Answers to What's Your Catholic IQ?

- b) Since the beginning of the Church, Christians have met on Sunday to break bread. "The Eucharist is 'the source and summit of the Christian life'" (CCC, n. 1324).
- a) All the Sacraments bring healing, but these two Sacraments specifically mirror Jesus' ministry of forgiving sins and praying for wholeness of body and soul.
- c) There are two degrees of ministerial participation in the priesthood of Christ: the episcopacy and the presbyterate. The diaconate is intended to help and serve them" (CCC, n. 1554).
- d) The Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick traces its roots to apostolic times. As James indicates, the forgiveness of sins was included in this Sacrament, which is why only priests and bishops can administer the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick (CCC, n.1516, Codi of Canon Law, n. 1003).
- a) Marriage helps couples overcome self-absorption and pleasure seeking and opens them to mutual aid and self-giving (see CCC, n. 1609; Genesis 2:24).

Reeducation for Peace

From the Pastoral Constitution on the Church in the Modern World of the Second Vatican Council (Gaudium et Spes, nn. 82-83)

Men must not be content simply to support the efforts of others in the work for peace; they must also scrutinize their own attitudes. Statesmen, responsible as they are for the common good of their own nation and at the same time for the well-being of the whole world, are very much dependent on the opinions and convictions of the general public. Their efforts to secure peace are of no avail as long as men are divided or set against each other by feel-ings of hostility, contempt and distrust, by racial hatred or by inflexible ideologies. There is then a very great and urgent need to reeducate men and to provide fresh in-spiration in the field of public opinion.

Those engaged in education, especially among young people, and those who influence public opinion, should consider it a very serious responsibility to work for the reeducation of mankind to a new attitude toward peace. We must all undergo a change of heart. We must look out on the whole world and see the tasks that we can all do together to promote the well-being of the family of man. We must not be misled by a false sense of hope. Unless antagonism and hatred are abandoned, unless binding and honest agreements are concluded, safeguarding universal peace in the future, mankind, already in grave peril, may well face in spite of its marvelous advance in knowledge that day of disaster when it knows no other peace than the awful peace of death.

In saying this, however, the Church of Christ, living as it does in the midst of these anxious times, continues unwaveringly in hope. Time and again, in season and out of season, it seeks to proclaim to our age the message of the Apostle: Now is the hour of God's favor, the hour for a change of heart; now is the day of salvation.

To build peace, the causes of human discord which feed the fires of war must first be eliminated, and among these especially the violations of justice. Many of these causes are due to gross economic inequality and delay in providing necessary remedies. Others arise from a spirit of domination and from a contempt for others, and, among more fundamental causes, from human envy, dis-trust, pride and other forms of selfishness. Since man cannot bear so many violations of due order, the result is that, even where war does not rage, the world is con-stantly plagued by human conflict and acts of violence.

The same evils are also found in relations between nations. It is therefore absolutely necessary that international institutions should cooperate more effectively, more resolutely and with greater coordination of effort, in order to overcome or prevent these evils, and to check unbridled acts of violence. There must also be constant encouragement for the creation of organizations designed to promote peace.

NEW PASTORAL COUNCIL: The Pastoral Council and Fr. Dave have agreed to begin a process in November to form a New Pastoral Council which will begin working in January.

From now until November 25th we will be receiving nominations. Between November 25th and December 16th Father Dave will interview those who have been nominated and then select those who will serve beginning in January.

See sample of the nomination form on the back page of this bulletin. This contains the purpose of the Pastoral Council as well as suggestions about the qualification for a member. You can nominate more than one person if you wish. The present members of the Pastoral Council are also eligible for nomination. Thank you for your consideration.

Mite-y faith

Mark 12:38-44

Nobody said life was fair. Some of us were born with the proverbial silver spoon. Others have to pay a toll at every fork in the road. But don't worry if you have less to offer than the guy living on easy street. We're not expected to keep up, just to keep on giving. Let me explain:

God knows each of us has different skills, abilities and fortunes in this life. So when He does His tally sheets, His books aren't based on strict arithmetic. God is into higher math. He looks into our hearts, our hands, and yes, our wallets to see if what we give is equivalent, not equal. For those blessed with much, much is expected. For those not so blessed, God grades on the curve. He wants to see an equivalent amount of sacrifice, not an equal dollar or time amount. The widow's mite in today's lesson wasn't equal to a governor's tithe, but it was huge in comparison to her everyday earnings.

That's the blessedness of our Father's kingdom. He can make miracles happen with the smallest of gifts. All we have to do is remember this one truth: When is a little a lot? When it's all you've got. ©Copyright 2006 C L Enterprises

CHRIST THE KING: The Archdiocesan celebration of the Feast of Christ the King will be held on Sunday, Nov. 25, 2018, beginning at 10:30 a.m. in Bienville Square in downtown Mobile. The Christ the King Procession will walk west on Dauphin Street to Cathedral Square while reciting the Holy Rosary. Upon conclusion all will enter the Cathedral-Basilica of the Immaculate Conception where Mass will begin at 11:00 a.m. During Mass, Archbishop Rodi will confer the annual Christ the King Medal to those selected by their pastor to be recognized for their exemplary service to the parish community. Everyone is invited to participate in this celebration and witness to our faith and heritage.

Marriage Minute

(Reader's Tip) Say "thank you," especially for the little things. It lets your spouse know you noticed and appreciated what they did, no matter how little the task.

PARISHIONERS DEPLOYED OVERSEAS:

Jake Ryan, Jed Hardy and SSG Seth Hamilton are deployed. Please keep him in your prayers.

PRAY FOR OUR SICK: Emerson Horner, Sr. Judy Jones, Joe Gagnon, Arthur Clements; Mrs. Cathy Sellers, Rob Wilburn, Tom Blythe, Donna Hershey. Your love one's name will appear on our list for at least four consecutive Sundays. If a longer period of time is needed, please renew your request by calling the office. Thank you.

All 1st Reconciliation Students: First Reconciliation is quickly approaching. It will take place this year on 17 November 2018. Please note that there has been a change of time! We will meet at 10:00 am, and NOT 12:00 noon. All 1st Reconciliation students are expected to attend. Please let me know if you have any questions. Parents should note that their student has brought home a Mass attendance sheet to get signed at every Mass they attend. It is important that your student becomes accustomed to attending. Sometimes it is impossible to attend, and we understand that. Job responsibilities, sickness, and no transportation might occur. Please know that if for some reason you cannot attend, you can sign permission form for them to attend either the 11:30 am, or 7:00 pm Mass. Thank you!

Some things you can work on with your student at home? Say the Guardian prayer together: Angel of God my Guardian dear, to whom God's love commits me here. Ever this (day/night) be at my side, to light and guard, to rule and guide. Teach them to say Grace before meals: Bless us oh Lord for these thy Gifts, which we are about to receive. Through His Bounty, through Christ our Lord. Amen

RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults)? Adult Formation meets every Thursday from 6:45 pm, until 8:00 pm. Apologetics has started, please come join Us!
