Be careful what you ask for

Ever long for something, plan for it and then when it happens, feel sheer horror at the place you landed? It takes a very wise heart and strong to character to choose only the roads that are best for us. For most of us, we think, dream, pray and then hold on for the ride, because the destination is nearly always surprising. If we're exceptionally blessed, that surprise is a good one, more often it's a disappointment.

And the painful truth is we have no one to blame but ourselves. If we took our eyes off ourselves for a few moments, God and His goals might show through. But that's a lot tougher than it sounds. Think of disciples spending every day in the presence of God's only Son. They should have had all the spiritual direction anyone could need. Yet those twelve poor souls fell into the same trap we do, asking for personal gain, to be favored with powerful positions in the kingdom of God. And mercifully Jesus warned them about the road they were choosing for thrones of glory in His kingdom are paid for with blood, suffering, sacrifice, martyrdom. It's the age old story. Dream big, but be ready to pay the price. In other words, be careful what you ask for, you just might get it.

Marriage Minute

Are you a skunk, a turtle, or an owl? In terms of conflict resolution, skunks just make a stink about it, often with a lot of noise. Turtles ignore or hide from the problem. Owls look the problem over, think about it, then suggest a solution. Choose wisdom!
