RELIGIOUS EDUCATION: Classes are doing a Jesse Tree/Good Deed Tree! A

Jesse Tree incorporates Creation, until the birth of Christ by having ornaments that represent each important event. Secondly, students, teachers, parents and the Parish are invited to join in the fun of the Good Deed Tree! If someone does a good deed they are invited to put what they did on an ornament, and then hang it on the Jesse Tree. When the tree transitions into the Christmas Tree, the student with the most good deeds will get a special surprise! Everyone is invited to join in the attempt to do many good deeds this Advent! Come by and see the tree, located in my office.

The annual Christmas Play will take place during the 11:30 Mass on the 24th of December. We are looking for 7 volunteers to read roles from the play. These will include an Angel, the Narrator, Mary, Joseph, a Wise Man, Innkeeper and a Shepherd. Most are only one line, however; the Narrator will have a few. It would be very nice to include everyone, and I hope you will choose to be involved. If interested, we will have one quick rehearsal the week before. If you have any questions or to volunteer please call, Lisa @ 334-540-5329.
